SRA Authorisation of Individuals Regulations

Our Authorisation of Individuals Regulations [\[https://rules.sra.org.uk/solicitors/standards-regulations/authorisation-individuals-regulations/\]](https://rules.sra.org.uk/solicitors/standards-regulations/authorisation-individuals-regulations/) detail the requirements for qualifying as a solicitor in England and Wales and are supplemented by information packs [\[https://rules.sra.org.uk/become-solicitor/legal-practice-course-route/resources/\]](https://rules.sra.org.uk/become-solicitor/legal-practice-course-route/resources/) which provide further guidance.

Legal Practice Course

The Legal Practice Course (LPC) is part of the vocational stage of training under the old system and can be studied full or part time with an authorised LPC provider [\[https://rules.sra.org.uk/become-solicitor/legal-practice-course-route/lpc/lpc-course-providers/\]](https://rules.sra.org.uk/become-solicitor/legal-practice-course-route/lpc/lpc-course-providers/). The aim of the LPC is to prepare students for work-based learning and to provide a general foundation for practice.

The LPC comprises two stages:

- Stage 1 - Core Practice areas and skills; and
- Stage 2 - Three vocational electives.

LPC outcomes

The LPC outcomes detail the requirements for the legal practice course and the knowledge that every student should have upon the successful completion of the course.

Students Information Pack

Read in conjunction with the Legal Practice Course Information Pack, the Student Information Pack [https://rules.sra.org.uk/become-solicitor/legal-practice-course-route/resources/student-information/] provides information about the education and training requirements for those wishing to qualify as a solicitor in England and Wales.

Accredited prior learning

We recognise that there will be instances where an individual may have achieved some of the LPC Outcomes as result of their previous qualifications or experience. An LPC provider may grant exemptions from parts of the LPC to Bar Vocational Course (BVC) or Bar Professional Training Course (BPTC) graduates under their Accreditation of Prior Learning Policy (APL).

Credit will normally be given where the student has successfully completed the BVC or the BPTC no later than five years prior to the date of his or her enrolment on the LPC course. However, applications outside of this time limit may be considered on a case by case basis by each provider.

Applications for exemptions from part of the LPC will be considered by an LPC Provider and the decision as to whether or not to grant exemptions rests with each provider. Therefore, a student who is interested in applying for credit for prior learning should contact their preferred LPC provider to obtain information about their policy on APL for the LPC.

A BVC/BPTC graduate seeking credit for prior learning must still complete a period of recognised training [https://rules.sra.org.uk/become-solicitor/legal-practice-course-route/period-recognised-training/] in order to qualify for admission. Please note, these changes do not extend to granting exemptions from all or part of a period of recognised training.
