Summary of decision

The SRA has put restrictions on where and how Natasha Edwards can work in an SRA regulated firm. It was found that:

Ms Edwards, who is not a solicitor, was involved in a legal practice and has been convicted of a criminal offence which is such that it is undesirable for her to be involved in a legal practice in any of the ways described in the order below.

The facts of the case

On 29 July 2023 Ms Edwards caused grievous bodily harm with intent to do grievous bodily harm and wounded / inflicted grievous bodily harm without intent. She was convicted in January 2024 and sentenced in March 2024 to an immediate custodial sentence of 69 months, and 24 months to run concurrently.

Decision on outcome

As is reflected in the immediate custodial sentences Ms Edwards' conduct was serious. Two individuals were seriously harmed in an attack planned and/or encouraged by Ms Edwards. A third individual was threatened with serious harm in the same incident.

Ms Edwards was also ordered to pay a proportion of the SRA's costs of £600.
