Warning: Documents misusing the name of 'BA International Solicitors' and 'Linda Ali' and also misusing the details of other genuine firms and solicitors

23 May 2025

Documents misusing the name of 'BA International Solicitors' and 'Linda Ali' have been sent falsely using the names and SRA ID numbers of genuine solicitors and firms regarding the purported recovery of funds.

What is the scam?

The SRA has been informed that documents have been sent falsely using the names and SRA ID numbers of genuine solicitors and firms regarding the purported recovery of funds. The correspondence relates to the supposed recovery of funds lost to electronic trading. The recipient was provided with correspondence claiming to be from a financial regulator and also an international bank. The recipient was asked to provide money to 'unfreeze' the accounts, plus a further amount "as taxes".

Among the documents provided, and seen by the SRA, was a copy of:

- i. a supposed; 'legal undertaking' misusing the name and SRA ID of a genuine solicitor. The undertaking also referred to the SRA ID of a genuine firm and the name of a genuine solicitor, as well as the SRA ID of a closed firm (see below). The document is on letterheaded paper claiming to be for 'Linda Ali Lawyer Office' and appears to be also translated into Arabic and provides the telephone numbers '+44 2078711233' and '+44 7716649244' the email address 'info@lindalawyer.co' and a postal address of 10 Bloomsbury Way, London, WC1A 2SL (see below).
- ii. a photograph of a British passport for the supposed Imran 'Mahmod' Rashid (see below the name of a genuine solicitor with a similar name).
- iii. a 'lawyer-client agreement' providing the name of a genuine firm of solicitors and the name and SRA ID of a genuine solicitor (see below).

The SRA has been advised that the recipient was contacted by the WhatsApp numbers '+44 7599 037122', '+44 7907 765131' and '+44 7936 927341'.

The SRA has also been advised of a website operating at 'www.lindaali.com'. The website provides the postal address of 'Riverside

Building, County Hall, London, SE1 7PB' (see below). The SRA has also seen a copy of a supposed 'lawyer-client agreement' misusing the genuine solicitor's name (see below).

Any business or transaction, through the above email address, telephone numbers, WhatsApp numbers and website address is not undertaken by a firm or solicitor authorised and regulated by the SRA.

What should I do?

When a firm's or individual's identity has been copied exactly (or cloned), due diligence is necessary. If you receive correspondence claiming to be from the above firm(s) or individual(s), or information of a similar nature to that described, you should conduct your own due diligence by checking the authenticity of the correspondence by contacting the law firm directly by reliable and established means. You can contact the SRA to find out if individuals or firms are regulated and authorised by the SRA and verify an individual's or firm's practising details. Other verification methods, such as checking public records (e.g. telephone directories and company records) may be required in other circumstances.
